PEKI appoints State Manager for Queensland / Northern New South Wales

Reflecting the importance of its Northern clients, respected Australian refrigerated transport body builder - PEKI, is pleased to announce the much welcomed return of Trevor McCarthy as Peki's Regional Sales Manager - Queensland and Northern New South Wales.

Trevor brings over 15 years industry experience to the position and has extensive knowledge of refrigerated transport equipment and the operators' needs. Trevors' commitment to customer service combined with a familiarity with local customers, will ensure that PEKI is able to give the appropriate premium support to the region's transport operators

Presently consolidating on strong sales results and growing demand, PEKI is committed to ensuring there are adequate resources to properly service the market. National Sales Manager Michael Jenkins is delighted to have Trevor join the revitalised PEKI brand, adding that "Trevor's integrity and commitment to customer care are true to the PEKI brand values and his knowledge of refrigerated transport services will be an invaluable resource that will benefit our clients."

PEKI's extensive product range includes refrigerated and dry freight rigid bodies and semi-trailers, drop deck trailers, B-Doubles, demountables and the customized units for which PEKI is renowned.
